JOINT RESOLUTION relating to the preservation and publication of portions of the early state and provincial records, and other state papers of New Hampshire.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened :

That His Excellency the Governor be hereby authorized and empowered, with the advice and consent of the Council, to employ some suitable person—and fix his compensation, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated—to collect, arrange, transcribe, and superintend the publication of such portions of the early state and provincial records and other state papers of New Hampshire as the Governor may deem proper; and that eight hundred copies of each volume of the same be printed by the state printer, and distributed as follows: namely, one copy to each city and town in the state, one copy to such of the public libraries in the state as the Governor may designate, fifty copies to the New Hampshire Historical Society, and the remainder placed in the custody of the state librarian, who is hereby authorized to exchange the same for similar publications by other states.

Approved August 4, 1881.

PREFACE.

The exercise of territorial jurisdiction and the grants of townships by the provincial government of New Hampshire west of the Connecticut, within the present boundaries of the State of Vermont, is an important and interesting element in the history of both of these states. An acquaintance with the contentions between the provincial or colonial governments of New York, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire is necessary to a fair conception of the legal and political status of these grants in the first period of their history. In the earlier volumes of this series, the serious complications between New Hampshire and Massachusetts Bay, arising from the disputed boundary between them, may be studied to good purpose, particularly in the documents presented in Vol. XIX. The Massachusetts claim, at times, extended to an east and west line running through a point three miles north of the outlet of Lake Winnipiseogee, that being claimed as the point intended in the language of the charter, "the said River called Monomack, alias Merrimack, or to the northward of any and every part thereof;" (Vol. XIX, p. 335). If that point had been intended as "any part" of the Merrimack River, the argument should have been effective in locating the north line of Massachusetts Bay three miles north of the point marked by the monument at Weirs known as Endicott Rock. But the King in Council, March, 1739-40, determined the line to be governed by the river so far as that followed a westerly course, but when it turned to the north the line should continue "thence due West across the said River till it meets with his Majesty's other Governments." This result was favorable to the New Hampshire contention. The controversies over the theoretical location were thus practically ended. Differences have nevertheless existed as to the actual location of the line, until the recent settlement of the matter by commissions from both states.*

In 1741, Jonathan Belcher, who had been since 1730 the royal Governor of both Massachusetts Bay and New Hampshire, was succeeded in Massachusetts by William Shirley and in New Hampshire by Benning Wentworth. The commission of the latter described the boundary of the province "on the south side by a similar curve line pursuing the course of the Merrimack river at three miles distance on the north side thereof, beginning at the Atlantic Ocean, and ending due north of a place called Pantucket Falls, and by a straight line drawn from thence due west across the said river till it meets with our other governments." The commission also contained a grant of authority to dispose of lands upon such terms as might seem fit. In 1744, by an order of the King in Council, the Province of New Hampshire was reminded that it had neglected to take possession of and to provide for a fort called Fort Dummer, which was built in 1724 by Massachusetts upon the then western frontier of that province, and had been hitherto governed by them, "but is lately fallen within the limits of said province of New Hampshire by the settlement of the boundary line between the two provinces." Fort Dummer was situated within the limits of the present town of Brattleboro, Vt. In a report dated Aug. 14, 1752, on a case stated by the King in Council for the opinion of the English attorney-general and solicitor-general with respect to certain tracts of land granted by the governments of Massachusetts Bay and Connecticut, the following passage occurs in the official statement :

*Joint commissions are at this time placing monuments on the line, and there is no reason to suppose that this matter will hereafter be a subject of interstate agitation.

"There are also about 60,000 acres of land on the west side of Connecticut river which were purchased by private persons from the government of Connecticut, to whom that land had been laid out by the government of the Massachusetts Bay, as an equivalent for two or three townships which the Massachusetts Bay purchased from Connecticut government. This tract of land by the determination of the boundary line in 1738, is become part of New Hampshire, but the proprietors of it are subject to no conditions of improvement, and the land is waste and uncultivated."*

It will be observed that the boundary to the westward of Pantucket Falls between Massachusetts and New Hampshire is "*due west * * * till it meets with our other governments.*" The western terminus of this line and the western boundary of New Hampshire would manifestly depend upon a determination of the eastern boundaries of "our other governments" lying to the westward. It is manifest from the evidence that important considerations in respect to actual conditions, and official utterances, had contributed to the general understanding that the easterly boundary of New York was not on the Connecticut River. But it is at an earlier period that this question was first raised and made an important element in colonial affairs. The Hartford treaty of 1656 between the United Colonies of New England on the one part, and the Dutch colony of New Netherlands on the other, fixed a line of division between New Netherlands and New England to begin at the west side of Greenwich Bay, being about four miles from Stamford, and to run a northerly course twenty miles up into the country, and after, as it should be agreed by the two governments of the Dutch and of New Haven ; provided the line should not come within ten miles of Hudson's River. The Dutch were to retain all the lands in Hartford of which they were actually possessed, known or set out by certain bounds or marks, and all the remainder of the said land on both sides of Connecticut River to be and to remain to the English. This settlement seems to have been treated as conclusive by the parties till the conquest of the New Netherlands by the English in 1664. It was recognized by Dutch authority in the time of their reconquest and brief reoccupation of their former possessions in 1673. The provision for an extension of the line northerly, as settlements might ensue and require it, is the occasion for an inference that the Dutch pretensions would not extend easterly beyond the prolongation of the twenty-mile line provided that it did not come within ten miles of the Hudson.

The royal Connecticut charter of 1662 bounded the colony on the west by the South Sea. At this period there seems to be no evidence of a serious claim by the Dutch to territorial jurisdiction to the Connecticut River, and no admission of the validity of such a pretension by the English. In 1664, a charter was granted to the Duke of York by King Charles to confirm his purchase of Long Island and other territory from the Earl of Stirling, to whom they had been conveyed by the Council of Plymouth on the surrender of their charter to the crown in 1635. Furthermore the charter to the Plymouth Company of Nov. 3, 1620, granted them "that part of America lying between 40 and 48 degrees north latitude and in length by all the breadth aforesaid throughout the main land from sea to sea." It was also the intention to convey to the Duke of York the Dutch possessions of New Netherlands by the same instrument.*

The following extract from the language of the charter is sufficient to indicate the basis of the claim for a New York boundary on Connecticut River: "all that part of the main land of New England beginning at a certain place called or known by the name of St. Croix, next adjoining New Scotland in America, and from thence extending along the sea coast unto a place called Potuaguine or Pemaquid, and up the river thereof to the farthest head of the same as its breadth northwards ; and extending from thence to the river Kinebequi, and so upwards by the shortest course to the river Canada northwards, and also all that island or islands called by the name or names of Mattowaeks or Long Island situate lying and being towards the west of Cape Cod, and the Narrow Highgansetts, abutting upon the main land between the two rivers there called or known by the several names of Connecticut and Hudson's river together also with the said river called Hudson's river, and all the land, from the west side of Connecticut river to the east side of Delaware Bay; and also all those several islands called or known by the names of Martin's Vineyard and Nantukes or otherwise Nantucket."*

* The Boundary Disputes of Connecticut, by Clarence W. Bowen, 1882.

With this charter as the foundation of the contention, drawn after the grant to the Duke of York, issues were raised with Connecticut and Massachusetts successively, with a result confirming the boundary twenty miles east of and parallel with the Hudson River. It was also understood, for a considerable part of the period prior to 1740, that the western boundary of Massachusetts, against New York, extended to the line of Canada. The region afterwards constituting the State of Vermont was, for the most part, a wilderness, and the relations existing between the English and the French and their Indian allies rendered any considerable settlement of that part of New England hazardous in the extreme and impracticable. The claim of New York to territorial jurisdiction to the Connecticut River, if not practically abandoned, was for a long time held in abeyance. If, therefore, it was not a settled question whether the extent of New Hampshire to the westward was a line corresponding to that of Massachusetts, the history and situation of affairs were such that Governor Wentworth might well apply the practical test of actual land grants on the west side of the Connecticut, with reasonable expectation of being sustained in the movement. The enterprising and overflowing surplus population of the older New England towns, long confined in restricted limits by French and Indian aggressions, were looking to this region as the most promising for their future occupation. Governor Wentworth, in 1749, entered upon the business of disposing of the lands lying between the Connecticut and the twenty-mile line. In the period from that date to and including 1764 he issued not less than 129 township charters and 6 individual grants. Meantime a correspondence was carried on between the New York and New Hampshire governors, in which Governor Wentworth declared his position and purpose, and Governor Clinton denied that his claims were well founded and asserted the counter title. This resulted in an appeal to the crown. A decision by the King in Council, rendered in 1764, declared "the western banks of the river Connecticut from where it enters the province of Massachusetts bay, as far north as the forty-fifth degree of northern latitude to be the boundary line between the said two provinces of New Hampshire and New York." It is surprising to those who critically examine the charter titles, the conduct of the parties, and the admissions of crown authorities, that the contention of New Hampshire should have been ineffectual. It may well be questioned whether its cause was urged with the skill and vigor which characterized the agency of John Thomliuson for the province in the contest over our Massachusetts boundary. A London letter of March 31, 1763, from Mr. S. Johnson to John Wendell, may suggest an explanation of the causes which led to the result foreshadowed.

"I am really surprised at the supineness of the Proprietors and even of your Province in this matter; had it been pursued with spirit immediately upon the alteration of the Jurisdiction & before any Grants had been made by New York, it is very plain to me, that the Prop^{rs} might very easily have secured their Lands, tho' the Province had not recovered its Jurisdiction, and even the latter I think was very probable.

"Many things which have since happened have increased the difficulty, but I should by no means even now despair of it, if the cause was supported as it ought to be by the joint aid and application of all the Proprietors and the Province, the one for the Property and the other for the Jurisdiction of the lands, the real Poverty of those who joined Capt. Robinson (tho' they did the best they could) rendered them unable to give the cause that effectual support which was (and is) necessary to give it proper weight and render the application to the Crown as regular and respectable as its Importance and the usual course of Proceedings in cases of this kind justly required; Money has in fact been wanting to do Justice to this Cause; it came here rather in Forma Pauperis which is an appearance seldom made or much regarded in this country, and is by no means an Eligible light in which to place an affair of this kind."*

Upon the rendition of a judgment by the King in Council making the west bank of the Connecticut River the boundary between New York and New Hampshire, an opportunity was afforded for an equitable arrangement of resulting conditions.

The region occupied by the New Hampshire Grants was fully opened to settlers by the termination of the French and Indian wars and the English-American conquest of Canada. The country had been extensively traversed by the troops of New Hampshire and the lower New England colonies engaged in the war, and its advantages for settlement were well understood. A general movement of those interested in the grants, as holders or assignees of titles, ensued in the four years that elapsed before the royal adjudication of 1764.

The settlers on the grants and on the corresponding territory in northern New Hampshire rapidly cleared farms, made improvements, and established homes. This was undertaken and accomplished with full confidence in the validity of their titles under New Hampshire. The change in their political relations on the westerly side of the river, resulting from the King's decree, was unexpected and unwelcome. Nevertheless, it is not improbable that they would have acquiesced in the transfer of political jurisdiction to New York without serious objection or opposition, provided it had allowed them an undisturbed possession of their lands and improvements.

* X, N. H. State Papers, 216.

There was also a considerable portion of the territory between the Connecticut River and the line to the westward to which New Hampshire had claimed and asserted jurisdiction, that was not covered by New Hampshire grants. Of course it was expected that this would be disposed of by the government of New York for its own purposes and in its own way, and no serious difficulties arose in that direction.

From the year 1761, until the beginning of the Revolution, Cadwallader Colden had held the office of Lieutenant-Governor, acting as chief magistrate during a large part of the period, and had been influential in reference to the vigorous policy pursued towards the New Hampshire Grants. He inaugurated the scheme of regranting the lands, which had been included in the previous charters of New Hampshire. He was able and persistent in all his serious undertakings.

The inhabitants of the grants, however, long accustomed to local self-government in the Connecticut, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire towns, were well skilled in the exercise of their political prerogatives, and were determined in the defence of what they deemed to be their just rights, never for an instant wavering in the defence of their new possessions, whatever form of resistance it involved.

They first appealed to the King, and on the 24th of July, 1767, obtained an order forbidding the Governor of New York to regrant lands covered by New Hampshire titles or to disturb the settlers under them. The language of the decree was as follows :

“ His Majesty taking said report into consideration was pleased with the advice of his privy council to approve thereof, and doth hereby strictly charge require and command that the Governor, Commander-in-Chief of his Majesty's province of New York, for the time being, do not (upon pain of his Majesty's highest displeasure) presume to make any grant whatever of any part of the lands described in the said report, until his Majesty's further pleasure shall be known concerning the same.”

No modification of this order was ever made by royal authority. Nevertheless, Governor Colden persisted in his policy of aggression, which would compel a repurchase from New York or an abandonment of the earlier grant from New Hampshire. The settlers having the choice between one or the other of these alternatives and open resistance, moved with great unanimity to the adoption of the latter course, both from inclination and necessity.

Although in some instances the proprietors of New Hampshire titles chose to purchase immunity from disturbance from New York, it is noteworthy that where the alternative of resistance was adopted on the part of the settlers, they eventually maintained their position. The rule of persistence prevailed in all cases and each of the New Hampshire grants became a permanent political entity.

The conflict which ensued occupies the critical period in the history of Vermont, and had an important and controlling influence upon the course of events down to the time of the complete establishment of her statehood. Its presentation is not essential to an outline of the events which were precedent to the creation of the titles known as the New Hampshire Grants. Those who are interested in this epoch are referred to the works of the early historians of Vermont; History of Eastern Vermont, by Benjamin H. Hall, 1858; The Early History of Vermont, by Hiland Hall, 1868; and Belknap's History of New Hampshire, chap. 26. (Governor Hall finds occasion in his work for a vigorous dissent from the conclusions of Mr. B. H. Hall as to the New York contention.) The principal references in documentary history are, the Records of the Governor and Council of Vermont, vols. 1 and 2; the Collections of the Historical Society of Vermont; the Province and State Papers of New Hampshire, volume 10; and the published Colonial Records and Documentary History of New York. Maps presenting the townships as laid out on the disputed territory may be found in the Records of the Governor and Council of Vermont, volume 8, opposite page 430, and in the Documentary History of New York, (quarto) volume 1, appendix. Valuable monographs treating the same subject in its various aspects, recently published, are New Hampshire and Vermont, by Henry A. Hazen, 1894; Dartmouth College and the State of New Connecticut, by John L. Rice, Proceedings of the Connecticut Valley Historical Society, 1879, page 152; The Vermont Controversy, by C. A. Downs, Granite Monthly, volume 11, pages 320, 349; The College Hall in Politics, by Frederick Chase, History of Hanover, 1891, chapter 7, page 422; Address of E. J. Phelps, at the Dedication of the Bennington Monument, 1891, p. 84; Vermont, A Study of Independence, by Rowland E. Robinson, 1892; Saunderson's History of Charlestown, N. H., 1876, chapters 8 to 12.

In the following pages, copies of all the New Hampshire grants west of the Connecticut River are presented. The arrangement is alphabetically by towns. These are exact transcripts from the records in the office of the Secretary of the State of New Hampshire. Plots of the outline of each grant accompany the charter. The admirable notes which appear in the appendix have been prepared by Hon. Hiram A. Huse, whose special qualifications for such a task are manifest in the part of the volume which was prepared by him.

In further illustration of the history of these grants, a copy of the petitions which were submitted to the King by the grantees and settlers in 1767, is given with the names of the petitioners. An incomplete catalogue of the grants was published in Slade's State Papers of Vermont, 1823, pages 13 to 16. The same list is reprinted in Province and State Papers of New Hampshire, volume 10, pages 204 to 207. These authorities included a grant of date June 7, 1763, without name. The omitted township was evidently Essex. The manuscript books of charters contain two grants, Stratton, July 30, 1761, and Somerset, Sept. 9, 1761, which should be added to the list.

Hinsdale was laid by its charter on both sides of the river, and is included in the lists above named. There were also six grants to officers for service in the French and Indian wars, covering 14,000 acres, which are mentioned as a supplement to Mr. Slade's list; four townships, viz. : Marlborough, afterwards New Marlborough; Draper, formerly Wilmington; Flamstead, alias Chester; and Thomlinson, were regranted, and without including the grant of Hinsdale or the four renewals of grants, or those made to officers in His Majesty's military service, but adding Stratton, Somerset, and Essex, the whole number of original township grants should be 129.

This contribution to the documentary history of a most important period may well be supplemented hereafter by a production of the unpublished grants of townships and lesser tracts made upon the authority of the French, and those patents which the colonial government of New York issued for lands in the regions upon which the State of Vermont was erected. Other patents on the same ground, emanating from Massachusetts or Connecticut authority, should have place in the same work.

Equally important and interesting, and equally deserving of publication, are the petitions of the inhabitants, and other public documents relating to local affairs within the same state limits, which remain in obscurity in the archives of the French, English, Canadian, and several American state governments. This undertaking will doubtless commend itself to the favorable consideration of the people of the progressive state, whose history must be traced in the labyrinth which leads to these records in many distant, and often inconvenient, places of deposit and reference.

The communication which is appended, contains comments and suggestions which are an essential part of the prefatory statement introducing the principal text of this volume.

THE EDITOR.

MONTPELIER, VT., October 10, 1895.

MY DEAR MR. BATCHELLOR :—The notes will be useful mainly in giving a pretty full list of the names by which grants in Vermont have been known. They are not such as to warrant the word “admirable” applied to them in your manuscript preface, which you read to me Monday, unless you use it as meaning remarkable in the sense a friend of mine once said the good old village of East Bethel was a remarkable place. “You can start from East Bethel,” he said, “and go anywhere you like.” So one can start from the notes and acquire elsewhere full and interesting information. He will have to enquire his way for the most part, however, for the guide boards set up in the notes are far from sufficient to give him full directions for his way.

Some errors in the notes as printed I hope you may have opportunity to correct. On p. 617, in line 25, 4,000 should be 40,000. On p. 619, in line 8, the comma after the word “on” is an unwelcome and untruthful intruder. Father Abell (of many Vermont legislatures), once told of a comma that saved a man’s life a third of a century ago, by absenting itself from its proper place. Our constitution provides that in cases of treason and murder the governor shall have “power to grant reprieves, but not to pardon, until after the next session of assembly.” In the constitution as printed in a certain governor’s day, the comma after “pardon” dropped out, and the governor, after a session of assembly, pardoned a prisoner who had been convicted of murder. This is not the constitutional comma returned, however, for that has already retaken its proper place.

On page 627 in the 5th line under Bamf, and on page 633 in the 4th line under Billymead, there should be no period after Bamf.

On page 648 under Coventry, the statement should be that Coventry Leg, (not Coventry Gore), was annexed to Newport in 1816. On page 649 it should be stated that Coventry Gore was annexed to Newport in 1894, (Laws of 1894, p. 406).

On page 650, (and in your index of names), read Dellins instead of Dellins as printed.

On page 670 in the last line 1719 should be 1791.

On page 690 the incorporation of Montpelier as a city should have been noted as in Laws of 1894, pages 177–200.

On page 694 under Newport there should have been noted the annexation of Coventry Leg and part of Salem, (Laws of 1816, p. 129); and the annexation of Coventry Gore, (Laws of 1894, p. 406).

On page 704 the name of the leading grantee of Randolph should have been given as Aaron Storrs.

On page 708 it should have been noted that part of the city of Rutland was annexed to the town of Rutland in 1894, (Laws of 1894, p. 242).

On page 715 South Bennington should be South Burlington as you have stated on page 740.

Reference should have been made under the respective towns named to the following town histories :

Matthews's History of Cornwall, also Dudley's ; Williams's History of Danby ; Adams's History of Fairhaven ; Tucker's History of Hartford ; Munson's Manchester ; Rev. E. H. Newton's Ms. History of Marlboro, (in Vermont Historical Society Library) ; Swift's Middlebury ; Frisbie's Middletown ; Newfane Centennial ; Bottum's Orwell ; Hollister's Pawlet for One Hundred Years ; Davis's Reading ; Zadock Steele's Burning of Royalton ; Goodhue's Shoreham ; Paul and Parks's Wells ; also a history of Whitingham whose author I do not at this moment recall ; and a sketch of Wilmington Rennon.

No one desirous of tracing the early history of a Vermont town can leave out a careful examination of all the eight volumes of the Governor and Council. In that work Mr. Walton did much in the line on which your state has done much more in the publication of its State and Town Papers.

The manuscript Vermont State Papers in the Secretary of State's office contain a great amount of material never in print that is illustrative both of the history of the state and of the great majority of its towns. It is to be hoped and believed that, some day, the work of arranging and printing much of the matter contained in those papers will be entered upon. Most of the early legislation was upon petition, as were nearly all the grants. These petitions especially show the form and pressure of their time, with such accuracy as to be of great interest to any student of the days when the foundations were laid. With these papers, and access to the state libraries and official records of New Hampshire, New York, and Vermont, the full story of the New Hampshire Grants can some day be written ; and it is one that, well told, will be neither flippant nor prosy.

Sincerely yours,

HIRAM A. HUSE.

APPENDIX.

INHABITANTS OF THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GRANTS
KING.

NOTE.

The originals of these petitions are contained in a small volume in the Vermont State Library, entitled "Green Mountain Boy's Petition to the King, 1767." The outline of their history is given in the notes of Henry Stevens and Gov. Hall following. They are here arranged according to the original numbering of the petitions, and the powers of attorney are matched to their respective petitions by the corresponding signatures as these documents are in some cases misnumbered. It is evident that there were originally at least twenty petitions, as that is the highest number appearing, but Nos. 3 and 7 are missing entire, as are also the powers of attorney for Nos. 12, 18, and 20. One power of attorney is found with no corresponding petition. These papers are very valuable, not only as evidence of the great disturbance and consequent strong feeling aroused by this long dispute, but also in showing us, as far as they go, what men took an active part in the actual settlement of that territory.

THE EDITOR.

NOTE BY HENRY STEVENS.

These Petitions by the Green Mountain Boys were found by me in 1842, on one of my Antiquarian excursions from Yale College while mousing for unconsidered trifles in the old Johnson Family Mansion at Stratford, Conn, among the papers of William Samuel Johnson, of Stamp Act notoriety, and subsequently President of Columbia College. He acted as agent in London of the settlers of the New Hampshire grants in 1767, and died in 1819 A E. 92. These Petitions were scattered among a lar[g]e quantity of old papers, books, & pamphlets, in old barrels, stored in the garret. I brought together all the copies I could find. Probably a few are lost. Mr. W^m Samuel Johnson, the son, who died four year after, in Oct. 1846, aged 85, seeing the great interest I took in them, as a Vermonter, kindly gave them to me. Returning with them to Yale College, I arranged and had them bound. Afterwards I deposited the Volume with my father Henry Stevens of Barnet, Antiquarian. How it drifted from his collection, and became the right volume in the right place, or what had become of it, my father Could never tell me. I am glad however today again to see it, after more than a quarter of a Century, and am not now disposed to inquire into, or trace out its wanderings. The Vermont State Library is the proper place for it, and long may it remain here.

Written in the Vermont State Library this 17th day of August 1869.

NOTE BY GOV. HILAND HALL.

The Petitions & Powers of attorney here bound together, were taken to England by Capt. Samuel Robinson, as Agent of the Settlers on the New Hampshire Grants. Mr Robinson sailed from New York Dec^r 25, 1766 on board the same vessel with William Samuel Johnson, who went out as Agent for the Colony of Connecticut. He was also employed by the settlers to assist Mr. Robinson in obtaining relief from the Crown. On reaching London it was deemed advisable to prepare and substitute for these, another petition stating the case of the settlers more in detail; which was signed by Mr Robinson on their behalf & presented to the king. Mr. Robinson died in London Oct 27, 1767. These papers were found by Henry Stevens. Jr., among those of the deceased Mr Johnson, at Stratford Connecticut

HIS MAJESTY, KING GEORGE the Third.

To the KING's Most Excellent MAJESTY.

The Humble Petition of the several Subscribers hereto, Your Majesty's Most Loyal Subjects,

Sheweth to your Majesty :

THAT We obtained at considerable Expence of Your Majesty's Governor of the Province of New-Hampshire, Grants and Patents for more than One Hundred Townships in the Western Parts of the said supposed Province ⁽¹⁾; and being about to settle the same, many of Us ⁽²⁾, and others of Us, having actually planted Ourselves on the same, were disagreeably surprized and prevented from going on with the further intended Settlements, by the News of its having been determined by Your Majesty in Council, That those Lands were within the Province of New-York; and by a Proclamation issued by Lieutenant Governor COLDEN, in Consequence thereof forbidding any further Settlement until Patents of Confirmation should be obtained from the Governor of New-York. Whereupon We applied to the Governor of said Province of New-York, to have the same Lands confirmed to Us in the same Manner as they had been at first granted to Us by the Governor of the said Province of New-Hampshire; when, to Our utter Astonishment, We found the same could not be done, without our paying as Fees of Office for the same, at the Rate of Twenty Five Pounds, New-York Money, equal to about Fourteen Pounds Sterling, for every Thousand Acres of said Lands, amounting to about Three Hundred and Thirty Pounds Sterling at a Medium, for each of said Townships, and which will amount in the Whole to about £. 33,000 Sterling, besides a Quit-rent of Two Shillings and Six Pence Sterling, for every Hundred Acres of said Lands; and which being utterly unable to do and perform, We find Ourselves reduced to the sad Necessity of losing all our past Expence and Advancements; and many of Us of being reduced to absolute Poverty and Want, having expended Our All in making said Settlements.

Whereupon Your Petitioners beg Leave most Humbly to observe.

1. That when We applied for and obtained said Grants of said Lands, the same were and had been at all Times fully understood and reputed to lie and be within the said Province of New-Hampshire, and well within the Power of the Governor of that Province to grant : So that Your Petitioners humbly hope they are equitably entitled to a Confirmation of the said Grants to them ⁽³⁾.

2. The said Grants were made and received on the moderate Terms of Your Petitioners paying as a Quit-rent One Shilling only, Proclamation Money, equal to Nine Pence Sterling per Hundred Acres ; and which induced Us to undertake to settle said Townships through-out, and thereby to form a full and compacted Country of People, whereas the imposing of the said Two Shillings and Six Pence Sterling per Hundred Acres, will occasion all the more rough and unprofitable Parts of said Lands not to be taken up ; but Pitches, and the more valuable Parcels only to be laid out, to the utter preventing the full and proper Settlement of said Country, and in the Whole to the lessening Your Majesty's Revenue.

3. Your humble Petitioners conceive, that the insisting to have large and very exorbitant Fees of Office to arise and be computed upon every Thousand Acres in every Township of Six or perhaps more Miles square, and that when one Patent, one Seal, and one Step only of every Kind, toward the completing such Patents of Confirmation respectively, is necessary, is without all reasonable and equitable Foundation, and must and will necessarily terminate in the totally preventing Your Petitioners obtaining the said Lands, and so the same will fall into the Hands of the Rich, to be taken up, the more valuable Parts only as aforesaid, and those perhaps not entered upon and settled for many Years to come ; while Your Petitioners with their numerous and helpless Families, will be obliged to wander far and wide to find where to plant themselves down, so as to be able to live.

Whereupon Your Petitioners most humbly and earnestly pray, that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take their distressed State and Condition into Your Royal Consideration, and order that We have Our said Lands confirmed and quitted to Us ⁽⁴⁾, on such reasonable Terms, and in such Way and Manner, as Your Majesty shall think fit. Further, We beg Leave to say, that if it might be consistent with Your Majesty's Royal Pleasure, We shall esteem it a very great Favour and Happiness, to have said Townships put and continued under the Jurisdiction of the Government of the said Province of New-Hampshire, as at the first, as every Emolument and Convenience both publick and private, are in Your Petitioners humble Opinion, clearly and strongly on the Side of such Connection with said New-Hampshire Province. All which Favours or such and so many of them as to Your Majesty shall seem meet to grant, We humbly ask ; or that Your Majesty will in some other Way grant Relief to Your Petitioners ; and they, as in Duty bound, shall ever pray.

*p. 57. *We the Subscribers Proprietors and Claimants in and of sundry Townships, lately granted by Governor WENTWORTH, in the Western Parts of the then supposed Province of New-Hampshire, do hereby fully impower Our trusty Friends and fellow Partners in those Interests, Samuel Robinson, Esq; Ebenezer Cole, Jeremiah French, Benjamin Ferris, Samuel Hungerford, Ebenezer Fisk, John Brooks, John Sherrer, Samuel Keep, Partridge Thatcher, Abraham Thompson, Edward Burling, Benjamin Townsend, Tunis Wortman, Peter Clapper, John Burling, Joseph Hallet, Thomas Hicks, Esq; and David Matthews, Esq; for Us and in Our Behalf and Stead, to take and pursue all and every needful and proper Measure and Step, by Application to His Majesty or otherwise, to obtain a full Confirmation to Us of said Lands, on such reasonable Terms as may be; hereby granting to them and to any and every three or more of them, full Power of Substitution. [The names affixed to this power of attorney do not correspond with those on any of the petitions in the book. This is numbered 17 but that is certainly a mistake for the names are entirely different, while those found on the power of attorney, page 313 of the original volume, prove conclusively that that is the document which should accompany petition No. 17. HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE.

COMPILED BY

HIRAM A. HUSE.

ACTON.—About 5,045 acres of land in Windham County granted by Vermont, Feb. 23, 1782, to Moses Johnson & Company, thirty-three in number. This tract was granted under the name of Johnson's Gore and it was so known until it was incorporated Nov. 6, 1800, as the township of Acton, which, however, was not by its incorporation given representation in the General Assembly except that its freemen were given the right to assemble with those of Townshend in freemen's meeting in Townshend. In 1824, notwithstanding this attempted restriction, a representative was chosen from Acton, and again in 1825, and these representatives were admitted. In 1825 the act of incorporation was amended by repealing the section by the terms of which the freemen of Acton were to assemble with those of Townshend in freemen's meeting. In Oct., 1840, an act annexing Acton to Townshend was passed. This act, after acceptance by each town, went into effect Feb. 1, 1841.

ADDISON.—Town in Addison County, granted by New Hampshire Oct. 14, 1761. The first English fort on Vermont territory was built in this town at Chimney Point in 1690 by a party from Albany under Capt. Jacobus D'Narm. This fort was not permanently occupied. But the French made a settlement at Chimney Point in 1730 which continued until near the time of the New Hampshire grant of Addison. An agreement between the proprietors of Addison and those of Panton was ratified by act of Oct. 24, 1785, giving the proprietors of Panton the ownership of 8,000 acres in the north part of Addison, it proving that Addison, granted three years before Panton, lapped over lands first settled by Panton proprietors. Part annexed to Weybridge Oct. 22, 1804. Part annexed to Waltham Oct. 25, 1804. Legislation as to lines between Addison and Weybridge, 1856, 1859, and 1862.

New Hampshire charter, ante, pp. 3-7; act of Oct. 24, 1785 is found in [Ms.] Record of Acts and Laws of the State of Vermont in America, 1-509, and in [Ms.] Vermont State Papers, Vol. 1; and is referred to in [Revised] Laws 1797, p. 145 of Appendix; Laws, 1804, pp. 7, 23; 1856, p. 78; 1859, p. 148; 1862, p. 51; Thompson's AIKIN'S GORE.—About 930 acres in Windham County granted by Vermont Feb. 25, 1782, to Edward Aikins [later spelled Aiken,] Nathaniel Brown, Peter Sylvester, Peter Sylvester 2d, William Aikin and Nathaniel B. Brown, and by the terms of the charter annexed to Londonderry which had been granted in 1781. It forms the southwest part of Londonderry, and most, if not all, of this gore was included in the 26,000 acre grant made by New York, Aug. 9, 1770, called Virgin Hall.

ALBANY.—Town in Orleans County. A grant was made June 27, 1781, by resolution of the General Assembly to Colonel Henry Emanuel Lutterloh and Major Thomas Cogswell and their associates to the number of sixty five officers and soldiers then in the continental army, of a tract of land six miles square to be located and return made of the location to Ira Allen, Surveyor General, "to obtain a charter of incorporation." The town was chartered as Lutterloh, (sometimes written Lutterlock), June 26, 1782, Col. Antipas Gilman being one of the grantees. Col. Henry Emanuel Lutterloh was a New York officer appointed Deputy Quarter-Master-General by General Washington, June 30, 1777. Major Thomas Cogswell was a Massachusetts officer, then of Haverhill, Mass., and afterwards of Gilmanton, N. H. Name of Lutterloh changed to Albany in 1815. Part of Lowell authorized to be annexed to Albany in 1870.

ALBURGH.—Town in Grand Isle County granted by Vermont to Ira Allen and his sixty-four associates Feb. 23, 1781. The name is said to be an abbreviation of Allenburgh or Allensburgh. A settlement was made within its bounds by the French in 1731 at Wind Mill Point. This settlement was made under a French grant to Francis Foucault, afterwards confirmed and renewed by the King of France. After the conquest of Canada this grant was confirmed by the King of Great Britain and the title passed from Foucault to Gen. Haldimand, from Haldimand to Henry Caldwell, and from Henry Caldwell to John Caldwell, all British subjects. The tract went, before it was known as Alburgh, successively under the names of Point Algonquin, Point Du Detour, Point Detouror, Turnabout, Missisco Leg, Missisco Tongue, and Caldwell's Upper Manor. Heman Allen acquired the Caldwell title and about 1820 endeavored to establish it in a United States Court but failed. Part of Alburgh was annexed to Highgate, Nov. 1, 1792.

ANDERSON'S GORE.—About 1730 acres of land in Windham County granted to James Anderson and nine others by resolution of the General Assembly, Feb. 27, 1782, which was read in Council Oct. 17, 1782; see Governor and Council, 3-8. The charter was not issued until Oct. 22, 1801; see [Ms.] Vermont Charters, 1-358. By the terms of the charter the tract was made a part of the town of Windham.

ANDOVER.—Town in Windsor County granted by New Hampshire, Oct. 13, 1761. The Vermont charter of Benton's Gore, a tract of about 5,000 acres, constituted it a part of Andover after Oct. 25, 1781. Andover was divided Oct. 26, 1799, and the western part thereof with Benton's Gore was incorporated as the town of Weston. By the act of 1799 the two towns of Andover and Weston were restricted to one representative for both, but each town elected a representative in 1823, and from that time on each has had one, though no repeal of the restriction has been found.

ARLINGTON.—Town in Bennington County granted by New Hampshire July 28, 1761. Lieut. Gov. Colden of New York granted about 26,000 acres under the name of Princetown, May 21, 1765, to Isaac Vrooman and twenty-five others, covering part of Arlington, Sunderland, Manchester, and Dorset; this being the first New York patent, (except perhaps some of the 154 military patents issued by New York in 1765), for land in what is now Vermont. Oct. 30, 1765, Lieut. Gov. Colden granted (by the second New York patent other than military) to James Napier a tract of 10,000 acres described as "lying partly within the town ships of Shaftsbury, Glastenbury, Sunderland and Arlington, formerly granted under the Province of New Hampshire." March 19, 1771, Gov. Dunmore of New York granted John Munroe 4,000 acres lying chiefly in Arlington. Ethan Allen, Remember Baker, and Thomas Chittenden were sometime residents of Arlington, Chittenden being its first representative and Allen its second.

ATHENS.—Town in Windham County granted by Vermont May 3, 1780. Oct. 30, 1794, part of Athens with a part of Putney was incorporated as the town of Brookline. Nov. 13, 1813, that part of Brookline formerly part of Putney was "annexed" to Athens for the purpose of choosing a representative and voting for state officers. Part of Avery's Gore was annexed to Athens in 1815. Part of Athens was annexed to Grafton, Oct. 30, 1816. Lines between Athens and Westminster established 1839. Parts of Rockingham and Grafton were authorized to be annexed to Athens in 1846. The New York grant of Warrenton covered part of what is now Athens. May 16, 1767, Gov. Moore of New York granted John Adair a tract of 5,000 acres which lies partly, at least, in Athens.

AVERILL.—Township in Essex County granted by New Hampshire June 29, 1762. The appraised acreage of this and other towns is but an approximation to the real acreage as is illustrated in the case of Averill in which the appraised acreage of 1894 was 21,200 acres, of 1882 was 22,716 acres, and of 1880 was 20,468 acres. Other towns show less discrepancy in their returns which is perhaps accounted for by Averill being one of the three towns yet unorganized in Vermont—Ferdinand and Lewis being the other two.

EVERY'S GORE.—Samuel Avery was of Westminster as early as 1780 and as late as 1799, and there were issued by Vermont to him, or in his behalf, charters of eight tracts of land. Six at least of these tracts both in neighborhood speech and legislative phrase were each called Avery's Gore.

Some of the enactments distinguished the gore to which they applied by adding the name of the county in which it was situated; others did not. The six tracts referred to were all chartered direct to Avery, and one of them, that in Orleans County and now a part of Troy, was often called Avery's Grant as well as Avery's Gore. Direct reference by name to the smallest of the eight tracts, a gore of only 554 acres which was also granted direct to Avery and was between Franklin (then Huntsburgh) and Sheldon (then Hungerford), has not been found in any enactment or legislative record. The tract chartered on Avery's account to Thomas Pearsall, being the 3,926 acres that from 1803 to 1856 constituted the unorganized township of Bradleyvale and that now forms part of Concord and Victory, probably never went by the name of Avery's Gore. The story of these grants is illustrative of the time.

In an article on New York Land Grants in Vermont it is stated (Vermont Hist. Soc. Collections, 1 — 157), that to Samuel Avery (and others) there was granted Aug. 16, 1774, 28,000 acres in Lincoln and Ripton; to Humphrey Avery Sept. 6, 1774, 24,000 acres in Lincoln, Ripton and Granville; and Oct. 28, 1775, to Samuel Avery, 4,000 acres under the name of Whippleborough, in Starksborough and vicinity. In each of these cases there is no doubt that the grant was to the party named and his associates. As early as 1780 and 1782 some arrangement seems to have been made between the grantees so that Samuel Avery (who was perhaps a son of Humphrey Avery of New London, Connecticut) had come to own the New York title to the first two tracts, and Mary Whipple (who was perhaps the widow of Daniel Whipple, of Brattleborough) that title to the third, or Whippleborough. (See Avery's caveats against the granting of the first two tracts, Oct. 4, 1780, Vt. [Ms.] State Papers, 21-181, 183, and Feb. 18, 1782, ditto, 22-23; also Mary Whipple's caveat against granting Whippleborough Feb. 18, 1782, ditto, 22-22). Avery also laid claim to 1,000 acres in Middlesex (the New York Grant, now Randolph), as is shown by his caveat of Oct. 4, 1782, Vt. [Ms.] State Papers, 1-182; and to some interest in Thomlinson (now Grafton), as is shown by his caveat of Feb. 18, 1782, Vt. [Ms.] State Papers, 22-22. He evidently depended mainly on his claim to the first two tracts, covering together 52,000 acres, and from his persistent efforts to obtain them or an equivalent came the numerous Avery's Gores. His original 52,000 acres granted by New York were part of the Lydius tract, or what was known as the Otter Creek Lydius tract, to distinguish it from his Wood Creek tract.

Col. John Henry Lydius, born in Albany, 1694, son of a Dutch minister, became a trader with the Indians, a resident of Montreal until he was banished therefrom in 1730, afterwards a resident on his Wood Creek tract in New York near Fort Edward, and from 1767 a resident in England where he died near London in 1791. He obtained a paper purporting to be a deed from certain Mohawk Indians of a tract extending sixty miles south of the mouth of Otter Creek and to the east twenty four miles. This covered nearly all of what is now Addison County and a good part of Rutland County. His "deed" was dated Feb. 1, 1732, and is about the only evidence that the Mohawks themselves ever counted the land as theirs. Lydius obtained Aug. 31, 1744, from Gov. Shirley of Massachusetts a paper purporting to be a confirmation of his Indian deed and an absolute conveyance to him of the lands it described in fee, "in obedience to His Majesty's special command of the 5th of Oct. last." Hiland Hall thinks there never was any such command; (Early History of Vermont, p. 496). Lydius also received his title of Colonel from Gov. Shirley. The claimants to parts of this tract have been so numerous that in giving some account of them it is a relief as well as somewhat of a surprise to know that Arthur Orton and Dr. Kenealy never pretended that any of it belonged to the Tichborne estate. About an eighth of it was granted to Mons. Hocquart (to whom curiously was due the banishment of Lydius from Montreal) by a French grant in 1743 or 1745, and Hocquart's tract was sold by him in 1763 to one Michel Chartier de Lotbiniere who was making claim of Great Britain in 1776 for his "Lordship of Hocquart," which "Lordship of Hocquart" was described as lying on the east side of Lake Champlain extending four leagues in front and five leagues in depth. It was opposite Crown Point and was pretty nearly what is now the southwesterly part of Addison County. See Documents Relating To the Colonial Hist. of N. Y., 7-642, and 8-577, 670.

Following the Mohawk-Lydius-Massachusetts claim and the French claim, were the New Hampshire grants made in great number on this tract. Lydius had made a plan of this tract dividing it into thirty five townships. New York followed, granting a number of townships within its limits and a still greater number of military patents here and there. Durham (now Clarendon) and Socialborough were within its limits. Durham was settled by grantees under the Lydius title who obtained a subsequent charter from New York; and it was in Durham that the "Bennington mobb" in 1773 erected a “ judgment seat ” upon which Ethan Allen, Seth Warner, Remember Baker, and Robert Cochran, who had been appointed by “ the proprietors of the New Hampshire grants * * ” to inspect and set things in order,” took their places as judges and held such a court as never was before or has been since on land or sea. (Hall’s Early Hist. of Vt. pp. 169 to 177, and Doc. Hist. of N. Y., Vol. 4.) The object of the expedition was to make the settlers recognize the New Hampshire title, not to drive them off the lands they had made settlement on, or to make them pay exorbitant prices in recognition of the New Hampshire title. See Allen’s letters to the people of Clarendon, Hall’s Early History of Vermont, pp. 175–177.

These Durhamites were holding their lands by the same title Avery had to the 52,000 acres claimed by him with the addition that they were actual settlers.

One of Avery’s petitions to Vermont, never before in print, is this :

To his Excellency Thomas Chittenden Esq^r Captain General and Governor in Chief of the State of Vermont, and the Territories depending thereon in America, and the Honorable the General Assembly of said State, now Convened and Sitting at Windsor within and for said State—

The Petition of Samuel Avery a friend to this and the united States of America—

Humbly Sheweth

That your Petitioners and the Rest concerned with him, Did many years since Purchase a tract of Land (now within this State) of Col. John Henry Lydius of Albany, He pretending to have a Title to the same, For which we paid a large sum of money, Bounded and Described as follows, Beginning at the distance of nineteen miles and fifty Chains from the mouth of Otter Creek where it emptieth itself into Lake Champlain, On a Course south forty three degrees east, and from the said place of Beginning, East eight degrees South Six miles and seventy Chains, Then south sixteen degrees west six miles and sixty five Chains, Then west twenty seven degrees north six miles, and from thence to the place of Beginning, Containing twenty four thousand acres of land and the usual allowance for highways, which tract of land we then supposed we had obtained a good title to, But unfortunately for us, we found, that the Government of New York who then Claimed the Jurisdiction of that part of the Country, paid no Regard to Col. Lydius’s Title or pretentions to that Tract of Land. But was granting the same to any Persons that would apply to them and pay them their enormous fees, On which your Petitioner supposed himself Reduced to the necessity of Obtaining a grant or Confirmation of the land from the Government of New York.

Accordingly we made application to the State of New York and after a Solicitation of about Six years, and paying to the Officers of Gov^t about Seven or Eight hundred pounds, besides the Expenses of Surveying application &c., to the amount of near fifteen hundred pounds, we Obtained a grant or Confirmation from that State for the same lands. We then supposed we had a good title beyond all dispute. This Grant we Obtained from the Gov^t of New York nearly on the principles of equity, having been at so great expense in the purchase from Lydius Surveying &c:—But Still unfortunate, Our misfortunes do not end here, those Publick Confusions come on. An intire Revolution Takes place, This State of Vermont set up Jurisdiction and form a Constitution for themselves, by which means our Title is again brought in question and all set afloate

Your Petitioner would beg leave further to observe to your Excellency and this Honorable Assembly, That the lands before described have never been granted by the Government of New Hampshire, or this State of Vermont, nor has any Person any Just Challenge or Pretention, Except your Petitioner—

And that your Petitioner is willing to subject himself to any Regulations or Conditions with Respect to Settlement &c.: To which other lands granted by this State are Subjected—

That your Petitioner has ever been a fast friend to this and the united States of America, which he is well able to prove by those on both sides of the question and early, and ever, both publickly and privately, espoused the Cause of those New Hampshire Grants against the Arbitrary and unjust proceedings of the Gov^t of New York.

That your Petitioner has been near Twenty years in the pursuit of those Lands, Constantly attending thereto—

That your Petitioner was forty days in the Wilderness without Shelter in the Survey of those lands and gone throug every difficulty Expense and fatigue, till he has nearly expended his whole Interest in the pursuit—He now Humbly Conceives he has the highest degree of Justus in his favour. And that the Granting or Confirming those lands to your Petitioner Cannot be esteemed or made use of as a president, for I presume there is not anothere Claim or pretention to land in this state Cloathed with the same Circumstances.

Your Petitioner therefore Humbly Prays, that your Excellency and this Honorable Assembly will at this time be favorably Pleased to grant or Confirm to your Petitioner the tract of Land before described, without fees.

And that the same may be created into a Township by the name of and Vested with the usual Priviledges Granted to other Townships within This State—

And Your Petitioner as in Duty bound
Shall ever Pray—

Samuel Avery

Windsor Feb^y 16th 1781.

Avery, who in 1781 said he had “been near twenty years in the pursuit of those lands, constantly attending thereto,” continued eight years more in that pursuit before the Vermont legislature in 1789 took the action that resulted in the creation of Avery’s Gores. In October of the last named year he presented the following petition to the legislature (see [Ms.] Vt. State Papers, 22—193):

“To the Honorable the General Assembly now Convened at Westminster—

The Petition of Samuel Avery and Associates Humbly Sheweth

That at the Session of this Honorable Assembly in the month of October 1780 your Petitioners presented a Petition [to this assembly] praying for a grant or Confirmation [of a grant of land] therein described, which Petition was laid over for a further hearing at an after Session of the Assembly—

That in the February following your Petitioners again preferred their Petitions, which were taken up and a Committee appointed, who reported that those petitions should have a bearing on the 5th day of the next Session of this Assembly

That at the Session of this Assembly in February 1782 a Committee of both Houses of this Assembly was appointed who took the matter of our Petition into Consideration and Reported for us to have a grant of the Land described in the Petition which Report was rejected by the Assembly and an Additional Committee appointed, which Committee again agreed to Report in our favor, but was prevented by an Order for an Additional Committee from the Council which Committee after again hearing the matter Reported that they Consider it a matter of uncertainty whether the Land prayed for had not been already granted either by the State of New Hampshire or by this State— Therefore they advise that the Petition should ly till an Actual Survey is made by the Surveyor General and that no grants should be made to any other Person of any part of the Lands described in our Petition, and those Petitions have ever since lain before this Honorable Assembly—which suspense has been Greatly to the Prejudice of your Petitioners.

Your Petitioners would Therefore Humbly Pray That the Honorable Assembly would take [the matter] of their Petitions into Consideration [and would grant] the Lands described to them if not already g[ranted and if] granted already to other Persons, Grant your Petitioners Rightious Compensation in other Lands, or in some way, Grant Relief to your Petitioners.

And your Petitioners as in Duty bound Shall ever Pray—

Samuel Avery

Westminster Oct^r 10th
1789

The original petition above copied is in one place torn and the words printed within brackets are supposed to be those missing.

The committee appointed to consider the foregoing petition reported that in their opinion the facts set up in the original petition were true, that the lands described had been granted to others and recommended that there should be granted to Avery and his associates an equal quantity of unlocated lands.

In Council Oct. 24, 1789, (Governor & Council, 3—198), it appears that: "An Act Granting fifty two Thousand acres of Land to Samuel Avery Esq^r having passed the General Assembly, was read and concurred, reserving as an Amendment, that the Grants of two Townships, one to Governor Marsh and one to Mr. Randall & Company be first Located and all other Grants yet unlocated, provided said Locations shall be made and returns thereof to the Governor and Council by the 15 day June Next—said Avery to have a Gore of Land east of Starksborough which he has liberty to pitch immediately."

Pursuant to the above action the following grants were made of tracts which with one or two exceptions each went under the name of Avery's Gore with some distinguishing addition to designate the particular tract referred to.

1. Avery's Gore in Chittenden County. This consisted, according to the statement in the charter, of 5,910 acres west of Fayston, but is stated in a table of Avery's patents made by Joseph Fay and found in [Ms.] Vt. State Papers, 38—47, to have contained but 4,000 acres. This table is without date but was probably made by Fay in 1794, in which year he ceased to be Secretary to the Governor and Council and removed to New York. This table of the Avery grants includes all of them except one of 554 acres made June 28, 1796, noted hereafter; the filing upon it is: "List of Locations executed to Saml Avery," and it is as follows:

This gore west of Fayston was one of three gores of which Avery obtained a charter in one instrument dated January 27, 1791: [Ms.] Vt. Charters, 1—302.

Part of it was annexed to New Huntington (now Huntington) October 22, 1794, pp. 55-57.

This gore lies between Buel's Gore and Fayston and is commonly mentioned in connection with the former under the name of “Avery's and Buel's Gore”: though the two gores, because now so much reduced in area, or for some other reason, are together called sometimes “Buel's Gore,” and sometimes “Avery's Gore.” Elias Buel, November 16, 1788, (see [Ms.] Vt. State Papers, 22—184, and post under Buel's Gore and Coventry), after he had located his “flying grant” of 1784, petitioned to have the land in question given to him and united with his own newly acquired gore under the name of Montzoar, but his request was not complied with and the land became Avery's. Buel's memory is kept green much better by the present arrangement than it would have been by the one he wanted.

2. Avery's Gore in Addison County. This gore contained 8,744 acres and was the second one named in the charter of three gores to Avery, dated Jan. 27, 1791, and recorded in [Ms.] Vt. Charters, 1—302. It was bounded north by Lincoln, east by Kingston, (now Granville), south by Hancock and west by Ripton. Part was annexed to Kingston, (Granville since 1834), in 1833, (see Laws of 1833, p. 26); and the remainder was annexed to Lincoln in 1847. (See Laws of 1847, p. 8).

3. Avery's Gore in Essex County. This gore of 10,055 acres, still existing as chartered, was the third named in the charter of Jan. 27, 1791, recorded in [Ms.] Vt. Charters, p. 302. When chartered it was within the bounds of Orange County as that county was then constituted. This gore lies west of Lewis.

4. Pearsall's Gore. This was a gore chartered to Thomas Pearsall by a separate charter dated January 27, 1791, and recorded in [Ms.] Vt. Charters, 1—299 and, (a duplicate record), p. 362; [Ms.] Vt. State Papers, p. 27, and p. 47. It was incorporated as Bradleyvale in 1803, (Laws, p. 25); and Bradleyvale, which never was represented in the General Assembly, was annexed to Concord and Victory in 1856, (Laws, p. 91).

5. Avery's Gore in Franklin County. This gore was chartered to Samuel Avery by charter dated Oct. 29, 1791, and recorded in [Ms.] Vt. Charters, 1—355. It contained 9,723 acres and was in Chittenden County when chartered. The annexation of part to Montgomery was authorized in 1855, (Laws, p. 50); and provision was made for establishing the line between it and Belvidere, in 1866, (Laws, p. 75). According to the Grand List of 1894 it now contains 7,395 acres.

6. Avery's Gore, in Windham County. This was a tract of 1,380 acres of land described in a resolution of the General Assembly passed Nov. 3, 1791, as "lying between Thomlinson [name in 1792 changed to Grafton] and Athen-." This resolution directed the Governor to issue a charter to Samuel Avery pursuant to a grant made to him in Oct. 1789. No charter of this tract is found recorded but it was for a quarter of a century referred to in legislation as Avery's Gore, and it is not only included in Fay's list ([Ms.] Vt. State Papers, 33—47.) but Avery in a petition dated Sept. 19, 1799, ([Ms.] Vt. State Papers, 20—297), states that "on the 29th day of October 1791 he obtained a grant under the great seal of the State of thirteen hundred and eighty acres of Land lying south of the town of Grafton and in width north and south 115 rods and in length east and west the whole length of the south line of Grafton." Avery, who in a petition dated Oct. 17, 1791, ([Ms.] Vt. State Papers, 18—289) described himself as one who "from his many misfortunes with which Divine Providence has been pleased to Visit him is left in low Circumstances with a large family to support," seems to have undergone the last suffering with which Vermont records credit him, in respect of this 1,380 acre grant. In his petition of 1799, referred to, he tells how "one Amos Hale of a place called Johnson's Gore," entered and took possession of his 1,380 acre tract, how he sued Hale and how he was cast in the suit, and asks that the legislature provide that he be given a new trial. This petition was served on Hale but was dismissed by the General Assembly Oct. 19, 1799, and to add insult to injury Samuel Crafts, Clerk, certifies that in General Assembly Nov. 4, 1799, the bill of costs was legally taxed at $6.25, ($1.75 being for 35 miles travel and $4.50 for 9 days' attendance). This taxation of the petitioner's costs came in a good year for Mr. Avery though, because he was awarded April 23, 1799, the sum of $2,655 of the $30,000 paid by Vermont to New York, upon distribution of that $30,000 among claimants by the New York commissioners. In H. Hall's Early History of Vermont, p. 507, it appears that Avery's $2,655 was awarded on this state of facts: "One of Avery's claims was founded on a patent issued to him and twenty-three associates for 24,000 acres, bearing date Aug. 16, 1774. On the 17th and 18th of the same month these twenty-three associates conveyed their shares to him. Another claim was for 28,000 acres, patented to Humphrey Avery and twenty-seven others, in Sept., 1774, all of whom on the 29th of that month conveyed their titles to him, thus vesting in him the whole 52,000 acres, and showing very clearly that the grants were made for his sole benefit. These two tracts adjoined each other and were in the easterly part of the present county of Addison. These with a claim for 200 acres in Durham and 1,000 in another town [probably the New York Middlesex, now Randolph], of which Samuel Avery was a grantee, [or purchaser from a grantee, see [Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 21—181], made up the 53,200 acres for which he was allowed the sum of $2,655.03. These grants were made by Lt. Gov. Colden. Avery continued his applications for them for some months into the revolutionary period and on the 28th of October, 1775, obtained a patent for 40,000 acres [the Whippleborough grant] from Gov. Tryon, after he had fled for safety on board a British man-of-war lying in New York harbor. The land was situated in the vicinity of his former grants, but his claim for it was disallowed by the commissioners, for the reason that it was made after the date which had been prescribed in the New York constitution, as the time when the colonial grants should cease to be valid."

It might be interesting to compare Avery's proofs before the New York commissioners with his statements in his petitions to the General Assembly of Vermont.

Part of Avery's Gore in Windham County was annexed to Athens in 1815, (Laws, p. 167): and the remainder was annexed to Grafton in 1816, (Laws, p. 40).

7. Avery's Grant, a tract of 11,040 acres now constituting the north part of the town of Troy. Its charter to Avery did not issue until Dec. 28, 1792, but was dated Oct. 27, 1792, because of an attachment on this tract made by Ira Allen who had sued the State of Vermont in the United States Court. See Avery's Grant, post; and also [Ms.] letter of Avery to Joseph Fay Dec. 19, 1792, [Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 24—61.

8. A tract of 554 acres for which Samuel Avery received a charter dated June 28, 1796, and recorded in [Ms.] Vermont Charters, 1—328. This tract was a narrow strip of land between Huntsburgh, (now Franklin) and Sheldon. It is not referred to in legislation but probably took its place within town lines by reason of an act establishing the line between Huntsburgh and Sheldon, passed Nov. 5, 1810, (Laws, p. 160).

This last charter of 554 acres left, according to Mr. Fay's list, yet to be granted to him to make up his 52,000 acres, 1,938 acres more, but Mr. Fay called Avery's Gore adjoining Fayston but 4,000 acres while its charter described it as 5,910 acres. Upon this last basis Avery had received within 28 acres of the required 52,000 acres, and no doubt the state "called it even" when the 554 acre charter issued.

EVERY'S GRANT.—A tract of land now constituting the north part of the town of Troy in Orleans County, containing 11,040 acres of land, granted to Samuel Avery of Westminster by a charter signed by Gov. Chittenden Oct. 27, 1792, which issued from the Secretary of State's office Dec. 28, 1792, and was in further and part execution of a grant to Avery of 52,000 acres voted by the General Assembly and concurred in by the Governor and Council, Oct. 23, 1789. Avery's Grant and Kelly's Grant (the latter containing 12,000 acres) were incorporated into the township of Missisquoi, (Missiskouie as then spelled), Oct. 28, 1801, and the name of the town was changed to Troy Oct. 26, 1803.

BAKERSFIELD.—Town in Franklin County. Vermont grant of 10,000 acres to Luke Knoulton, Jan. 25, 1791, ([Ms.] Vermont Charters, 1—284), in accordance with a joint resolution passed Feb. 28, 1787, ([Ms.] Vermont State Papers 30—114). In a committee's report, Oct. 28, 1789, found in [Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 30—114, it is referred to as a "Gore of land marked Knowlton in the Plan or Map of this State." While named Bakersfield in the charter it was called until 1792, Bakersfield, alias Knoulton's Gore. Part of Fairfield and Smithfield annexed to, Oct. 25, 1792, (Laws, p. 5), and the tract so formed "incorporated into one entire town," to be called Bakersfield, by the same act. Knight's Gore was annexed Oct. 31, 1798, (Laws, p. 40), and part of Bakersfield was annexed to Enosburgh by the same act. Part of Coit's Gore was annexed Oct. 26, 1799, (Laws, p. 16). Part of Bakersfield with remainder of Coit's Gore and part of Belvidere incorporated as Waterville, (Laws of 1824, p. 14). Line with Fairfield established, (Laws of 1817, p. 33); line with Enosburgh, (Laws of 1845, p. 5); and line with Belvidere, (Laws of 1866, p. 275).

Incorporated out of part of Cavendish, (Laws of 1793, p. 6), but by this act it was not allowed a representative in the legislature and was not represented until 1824. BAMF.—New York grant of 30,000 acres to Thomas Clark & Co. by Lt. Gov. Colden, Dec. 24, 1774. It covered lands in Burke and vicinity, (Vermont Historical Society Collections, I-157). Marked "Thos. Clark & Co." on map preceding Index to Vol. 1, Documentary History of New York. Bamf. must have included Billymead now Sutton. ([Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 18—80.)

See also Thompson's Gazetteer of 1824, where it is stated that: "In 1774, the first permanent settlement was made by Asa and Lot Whitcomb, Thomas W. White and others, emigrants from Massachusetts and Connecticut. At the time of the Battle of Bunker's hill, (properly Breed's hill,) which took place on the 17th of July, 1775, the firing was distinctly heard in this town by Thomas Freeman and others, a distance of more than 100 miles. On the 9th of August 1780, this town was visited by a party of 21 Indians, who made prisoners of Thomas M. Wright, Prince Haskell and John Newton, and carried them to Canada. Newton and Wright made their escape the spring following, and Haskell was exchanged the succeeding fall. They suffered many hardships while prisoners and on their return, but they all arrived safely at Barnard, and are now all living upon the farms from which they were taken. They were all prisoners in Canada at the time Royalton was burnt and were not then taken as has been stated in the narrative of that event." The author of the foregoing paragraphs from the earlier edition of Thompson, signs his article by the initials A. W. He gets Bunker Hill moved forward a month and his "more than 100 miles" is very nearly 130 miles as the sound would have to go but the writer knows that the tradition of Bunker Hill battle having been heard on Barnard hills has been common in the towns in the vicinity of White River valley, and as distinct as that the people of Montpelier gathered on the hill in Berlin opposite the capitol, and listened to the guns of the battle of Lake Champlain in September, 1814.

BARRE, CITY OF—City in Washington County. Incorporated out of part of the town of Barre, (Laws of 1894, 144 to 176). The territory included within the city limits is about 1917 acres, and the present town of Barre has about 17,736 acres. See Barre, Town of.

William Williams and sixty-four associates by the name of Wildersburgh, Aug. 12, 1781, ([Ms.] Vermont Charters I—107 to 110). Because “the name of the township has ever sounded uncouthly to the inhabitants and settlers and is also disagreeable on account of its length,” ([Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 29–61), the legislature changed the name of the town to Barre, Oct. 19, 1793, (Laws, p. 5.) I., being the residence of Col. Barton. A charter was not issued until Oct. 20, 1789, and then to Col. The town of Bennington was the first of the New Hampshire grants to the west of the Green Mountains to be settled under the New Hampshire charters. The literature pertaining to it and its battle is too voluminous to be cited in detail. Lossing, Hiland Hall, B. F. Hall, and other historians have much concerning it, while James Davie Butler's address and G. F. Houghton's address in 1848, President S. C. Bartlett's oration at the 1877 centennial, and Hon. E. J. Phelps's oration at the dedication of the monument in 1891, should be specially named. The fourth volume of the Documentary History of New York has much interesting reading as to the doings of the "Bennington mobb," and after the revolution began Ethan Allen and others of the "mobb" were in evidence at the capture of Ticonderoga, and Seth Warner and others at the Battle of Bennington from which Allen was absent being still a captive in the hands of the British.

Bennington by its name perpetuates the memory of New Hamp-shire's governor, Benning Wentworth, and by its battle (fought on New York soil because Stark did not wait for, but went forward to meet, the Hessians) gave bluff and plain and brave John Stark and his embattled New Hampshire farmers a fame, than which from all war there is none more lasting and real or with more dramatic setting. Vermont men, Massachusetts men, and New York men were there to help in the danger and share in the victory, but Stark commanded and his main army consisted of his officers and 1,332 enlisted men who had hurried across the Connecticut valley and the Green Mountains to aid those inhabitants of the New Hampshire Grants whom Burgoyne described as the most rebellious and warlike race on the continent hanging like a gathering cloud on his left.

Bennington was the first New Hampshire grant. Its first settlement is generally stated to have been in June, 1761; but the following extract from the Vermont Gazette of July 12, 1825, published in Bennington by Darius Clark, gives a somewhat earlier date:

"Olden Times.—The following article of intelligence we copy from an old periodical work published at Boston in 1791:

‘Vermont.’

‘Col. Samuel Robinson informs us that the 25th day of March, 1791, completed 30 years since the first stroke was struck by him towards clearing the first piece of land ever cultivated in Bennington; on the same day the Col. informs, he brought the first woman into Bennington that ever became a resident in it. The Col. has lived to see this town contain more than 4,000 inhabitants; and the year before last, by actual return, they made 26,000 yds. of cloth from flax of their own raising.’”

At the semi-centennial celebration of the Battle of Bennington held the 16th of August, 1827, according to the Vermont Gazette of Aug. 21, 1827, the first toast was "The Day;" and the second was: "General Stark.—His life was a practical comment upon his farewell sentiment to Green Mountain boys.—‘Live free or die, death is not the worst of evils.’" Another toast on the same occasion was: "The famous town of Bennington.—May the virtue of its inhabitants in 1827 be equal to the bravery of their fathers and brethren in 1777."

The second newspaper, (the Vermont Gazette,) printed in Vermont was begun in Bennington by Anthony Haswell in June, 1783; and in its files and those of its successors, most of which are to be found in the Vermont State Library, are to be found many items of value relative to the history of this most famous Vermont town.

Coventry was granted in 1780 to be situate about on the line of Rutland and Addison counties but it was found its site was already taken, and in 1784 Capt. Elias Buel obtained that "flying grant" by which, in 1788, he obtained a charter of what is now Coventry, in Orleans County, and of Buel's Gore in Chittenden County. The Coventry charter was not issued or the land under it surveyed till 1788, but its charter was dated back to Nov. 4, 1780. This charter so dated refers, in stating the bounds, to trees marked in September, 1788, and some of the sketches of Coventry change the dates of the marking of the trees back to September, 1780, to fit the date of the charter. The trees were marked in September, 1788, and are rightly referred to in the charter as so marked and the discrepancy occurs by dating the charter back to the year the grant was originally made to Buel.

Buel's petition of Nov. 16, 1788, found in [Ms.] Vermont State Papers, relates his difficulties with his "flying grant." It is as follows:

"To the Hon^l General Assembly of the Stat of Vermont To be Convened at Westminister on the 2nd Thursday of Oct^r next

COVENTRY.—Town in Orleans County. Nov. 4, 1780, Major Elias Buell of Coventry, Conn., obtained from Vermont for himself and associates a grant of “a Certain tract of Land in this State lying between the towns of Shorum, Orwel, Hubbarton, Sudbury and Whiting,” (Governor and Council, II—55), and paid the granting fees therefor. When it was afterwards found that the surrounding towns covered nearly the whole of the lands granted, the legislature in Oct., 1784, upon a petition filed, allowed Buell to select from the unlocated lands in the state an equivalent for the deficiency, (Governor and Council, III—59). Oct. 24, 1788, a sufficient amount of land having been decreed by the Land Commissioners, in accordance with the “flying grant” of 1784, to make up the deficiency, the Secretary of the Council was directed to issue a charter, (Governor and Council, III—176, 180). The charter dated Nov. 4, 1780, issued to Maj. Elias Buel and fifty-nine associates, included three tracts of land: the present town of Coventry, 16,767 acres, 2,000 acres known as Coventry Gore, which was annexed to Newport in 1816, and Buel’s Gore in Chittenden County which then contained 4,273 acres. ([Ms.] Vermont Charters I—43 to 46). Coventry Gore annexed to Newport. (Laws of 1816, p. 129). Name of town changed to Orleans. (Laws of 1841, p. 61). Name changed back to Coventry. (Laws of 1843, p. 28).

COVENTRY.—A “Will o’ the Wisp” sometime thought to have been seen where Cornwall and Weybridge are. See Governor and Council, 8—366, and map facing p. 430; also Jeffery’s Atlas, Map No. 15. This Coventry is plainly neither the Coventry petitioned for and granted to Major Buel and associates in 1780, nor the present Coventry which was chartered (by charter dated back to Nov. 4, 1780,) to Major Buel and associates in 1788. It is discovered nowhere except on certain maps, and no doubt there appears by the blunder of the draughtsman or engraver mistaking the name of Cornwall, which was granted in 1761; or by thinking (from Coventry, N. H., holding the same relative position to Connecticut River that Cornwall does to Lake Champlain) that he was at work on the New Hampshire Coventry, when really at work on Cornwall. It looks more like a misreading of the name Cornwall on the part of the map maker, for the same map in Jeffery's contains Betton for Bolton and Woodbury for Newbury. Such carelessness would easily make Coventry out of Cornwall.

DELLINS GRANT.—A New York grant made to Rev. Godfrey Dellins, of Albany, N. Y., Sept. 3, 1696, and three years later set aside and annulled, as having been obtained and issued by fraud. New York used this grant as showing that her claim of an eastern boundary on the Connecticut River was an ancient one, insisting that the patent covered a tract of land on the west side of Vermont twelve miles in width, commencing at Charlotte and extending south for about fifty miles. Hiland Hall in his Early History of Vermont insists that no part of the Dellins grant covered any Vermont land.

FRENCH GRANTS.—According to a map of French and English grants facing p. 368 of Vol. I, (quarto), Documentary History of New York, six Seigniories were granted by the French east of Lake Champlain, and within the present State of Vermont.

1. The Seignior of Hocquart; see Hocquart, post.

2. Concession of July 7, 1734, to M. Contrecoeur, Junior, of land "beginning at the mouth of the Rivière aux Loutres [Otter River] one league and a half above and one league and a half below making two leagues front by three leagues in depth." Vol. I, (quarto), Documentary History of New York, p. 361. This Seignior was situated just north of the Seignior of Hocquart, and is marked "A" on map of Lake Champlain (1748), facing p. 358 of Vol. I, Documentary History of New York.

3. Seignior conceded to M. De la Perriere July 6, 1734, "beginning at the Mouth of the River Onynouski one league above and one below making two leagues front by three leagues in depth," Vol. I, Documentary History of New York, p. 361, and marked "B" on map facing p. 358.

4. Seignior south of No. 3. A record of the grant not found, and the grantee does not appear on the map last mentioned.

5. Seignior "La Manaudiere," just north of No. 3, conceded April 30, 1737, to M. Raimbault "containing four Leagues front by five leagues deep, the said four Leagues commencing in descending the Lake, from the Bounds of the Seignior granted to Sieur La Perriere" . . . "in which is included the River called A la Mouelle." Vol. I, Documentary History of New York, p. 364; marked "36" on map facing p. 358. Sept. 27, 1766, this Seignior was sold to Benjamin Price, Daniel Robertson, and John Livingston, pp. 363, 364.

6. Seignior just north of No. 5 "two leagues front by three leagues deep on the East side of Lake Champlain" conceded to M.

Douville Oct. 8, 1736; Vol. I, Documentary History of New York, p. 361; marked "37" on map facing p. 358.

The Seigniorie granted to M. De Beauvais July 20, 1734 "two leagues in front by three leagues in depth on Lake Champlain together with the peninsula which is found to be in front of said land" and marked "C" on map facing p. 358, is evidently in Vermont territory. Isle la Motte was included within the limits of a Seigniorie west of the lake, conceded to M. Pean, April 10, 1733, p. 361; see map facing p. 358.

Part, at least, of Alburgh is in the Seigniorie granted M. Lafontaine, April 5, 1733, "being five quarters of a league in front on the River Chambly by the depth that may be found to the bay of Missiskouy," marked "K" on map facing p. 358. All the above grants except the Seigniories of Hocquart and La Manaudiere (1 and 5) were reunited to His Majesty's Domain, May 10, 1741, the Proprietors not having fulfilled the conditions set forth in their deeds; Vol. I, Documentary History of New York, pp. 360, 361.

Grand Isle, marked "L 30" on map facing p. 358, and which embraced both Heroes as the Seigniorie of M. Contrecoeur was probably forfeited at the same time as the other Seigniories above mentioned.

The Seigniorie of M. Faulcaut, marked "I," probably included part of Alburgh; see Caldwell's Upper Manor, ante.

GRANVILLE.—Town in Addison County. Vermont grant as Kingston of 23,040 acres to Reuben King, Sheldon Graham, Jonathan King, Daniel King, and sixty associates, Aug. 2, 1781, ([Ms.] Vermont Charters, 1—159 to 162). New York grant of 28,000 acres by Lt. Gov. Colden to Humphrey Avery & Co., (see Avery's Gores, ante), Sept. 6, 1774, covered lands now in Lincoln, Ripton, and Granville; Vermont Historical Society Collections, 1—157. Part of Avery's Gore annexed, (Laws of 1833, p. 26). Name changed to Granville, (Laws of 1834, p. 28).

GREEN AND MOULTON'S GRANT.—Mentioned in Vol. VI, Governor and Council, pp. 390, 401, 402. Probably the same as Whitingham Gore, which was chartered Oct. 20, 1796, to Amos Green, Samuel Moulton, Solomon Moulton, and thirteen associates, ([Ms.] Vermont Charters, 1—337 to 339). In [Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 22—51, there is a petition dated Oct. 2, 1783, which describes a certain tract of land as bounded "South on the South Line of Whitingham, West on Lieut. Gambell's New York Patent (since granted by this State to Amos Green and others)." Another petition in the same volume, p. 53, dated Oct. 7, 1783, describing the same tract of land, bounds it "South on Massachusetts Bay West on land granted By the General Assembly to molton and green and company." As the granting fees on a "Gore of Land Granted unto Amos Green, Samuel Moulton and Company" were fixed by the Governor and Council, Feb. 25, 1782, (Governor and Council, II—146), it seems highly probable that the Green and Moulton's Grant appearing in the Governor and Council in 1821, and Whitingham

Gore chartered in 1796 to Green, Moulton, and others are one and the same tract of land.

IRA.—Town in Rutland County. Oct. 12, 1780, the petition of Lemuel Roberts and thirty-nine associates was filed asking for a grant of the District of Ira, ([Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 21-187). A grant must have been made, for Nov. 9, 1780, the Governor and Council, (II—59), fixed the amount of the granting fees and the time for their payment at June 1, 1781.

The granting fees being unpaid Oct. 20, 1783, a committee of the General Assembly to whom was referred the question of the right of the District of Ira to be represented reported that inasmuch as the district was represented in the convention that formed the constitution and had since been represented and taxed, that the district continue to be allowed a representative. The report was accepted, ([Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 22-56). Two years later, however, the following report was adopted, Oct. 25, 1785:

"The Hon^l General Assembly now Convened.

Your committee appointed to confer with his Excellency the Governor Respecting the granting fees of the town of Ira find that the said Town was granted in Oct 1780—that a charter was to Issue on the granting fees being paid—and that the greatest part of Said proprietors have as yet Neglected to pay any part thereof although Five years have Elapsed Since Said grant—Therefore it is the opinion of your Committee that a time be allowed s^d proprietors to pay the fees—and upon their neglect a charter be made to any person that will appear to pay the same—all which is humbly Submitted by Sam^l Williams for Com."

([Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 22-107; Governor and Council, III—28). Oct. 31, 1792, the report of a committee on granting fees of Ira showed that only part had been paid, ([Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 31-223; see also 38-148). There is no record that the granting fees were ever paid and probably a charter was never issued.

New York grant of 5,000 acres to Henry Van Vleck & Co. by Gov. Tryon, Nov. 6, 1772, covered lands now in Ira; Vermont Historical Society Collections, 1-157. JAY.—Town in Orleans County. The present town of Jay was granted by the State of Vermont, March 13, 1780, under the name of Wyllis "To the officers of the Connecticut line, being sixty in number," (Governor and Council, II—25). A charter of Wyllis was never issued in accordance with this grant, for the reason probably that the granting fees were not paid. How and when the town received the name of Carthage is a question hard to answer. In 1783 it was called by that name, for, Oct. 20 of that year, the salary of Gov. Chittenden for the years 1781 and 1782 was ordered to "be paid, the one half in forfeited rights of Land in the town of Carthage, at nine pounds per right," etc., (Governor and Council, III—28; [Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 31—108). Since 1792 the name of the town has been Jay. Vermont granted 7,600 acres of the town to His Excellency Thomas Chittenden, Nov. 7, 1792, ([Ms.] Vermont Charters, 1—340 to 342), and 15,360 acres to John Jay and John Cozine of New York City, by charter dated Dec. 28, 1792, ([Ms.] Vermont Charters, 1—376). Line with Richford established, (Laws of 1802, pp. 158-160; 1803, p. 60).

KELLYBROOK.—New York grant of 30,000 acres by Lt. Gov. Colden to Luke Knowlton July 20, 1774; covered lands in Fletcher and vicinity; Vermont Historical Society Collections, I—157.

KELLYBURGH.—Mentioned in a petition for a road in [Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 18-137, and from the direction of the road as described in the petition Kellyburgh must have included Kellyvale, or Kelly's Grant No. 2, or both. It is evident from a report of a committee to assess granting fees that Kellyburgh covered the four tracts chartered to John Kelly in 1791. The report of the committee adopted by the General Assembly Jan. 25, 1791, is in [Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 31-222, and contains the following: "We find the legislature of Vermont on the fifth day of March one Thousand seven hundred and Eighty seven made a Grant to the said Kelly of Sixty nine Thousand and one hundred Acres of land lying in the tract commonly called Kelly burgh."

KELLYVALE.—Vermont grant of 31,000 acres to John Kelly of the City of New York June 7, 1791, ([Ms.] Vermont Charters, I—308). Kelly's Grant No. 2 adjoining Kellyvale annexed, (Laws of 1825, p. 33). Name changed to Lowell, (Laws of 1831, p. 11).

See Lowell.

KELLY'S GRANT NO. 2.—Vermont grant of 6,000 acres to John Kelly June 6, 1791, ([Ms.] Vermont Charters, 1-306). This tract was situated east of Kelly's Grant No. 1, which was chartered as Kellyvale. In 1825 Kelly's Grant No. 2 was annexed to Kellyvale, (Laws of 1825, p. 33), and both comprise the present town of Lowell.

KELLY'S GRANT NO. 3.—In March, 1787, Vermont granted to John Kelly 69,100 acres of land, 39,000 acres of which was free of fees, (Governor and Council, III—180; [Ms.] Vermont State Papers 31-222). Four charters were issued in 1791, three in June comprising 39,000 acres, and one Nov. 4, of 30,100 acres, the granting fees for the last having been paid Oct. 22, 1791, (Governor and Council, IV—20). The tract which was called No. 3 of Kelly's was the one chartered in Nov., 1791, as Belvidere, which see. A fourth tract of 2,000 acres chartered June 8, 1791, ([Ms.] Vermont Charters, 1—307) which with Kellyvale and No. 2 made up the 39,000 acres, was situated south of Belvidere and west of Johnson and was the part of Belvidere incorporated with Coit's Gore and part of Bakersfield into the town of Waterville in 1824. See Laws of 1824, p. 17, where it is called Belvidere Leg.

In a petition dated Feb. 26, 1787, ([Ms.] Vermont State Papers 22—137), Kelly gives a list of the tracts of land to which he claims to have a New York title and for which he asks the grant of an equivalent from Vermont. He also states the Vermont territory in which his lands are situated:

claimed by New Hampshire. "Litchfield" is found on map facing p. 430 of Vol. VIII, Governor and Council, and room is made for it between Royalton and Barnard which are adjoining towns. "Lintfield" is in the list of New York grants published in the Rural Magazine in 1795, 1-90, and copied in Slade's Vermont State Papers, pp. 13, 16, and the Provincial and State Papers of New Hampshire X—204 to 207, the date of the grant being Aug. 4, 1763. But John Kelly "being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists" testified in the city of New York on the 6th day of March, 1771, that he had in his possession a map procured in New Hampshire as an authentic draft of the lands granted by Gov. Wentworth in Vermont with the dates of the patents, and Lintfield does not appear in his list; Vol. IV, (octavo) Documentary History of New York, pp. 704-707. There are other differences between these lists as pointed out in Governor and Council, VIII—364 to 366, but the copy of charters in the Secretary of State's office in Montpelier, Vt., which was certified to by the Secretary of State of New Hampshire in 1857 as correct, and supposed to include all grants in Vermont territory, has all the towns on both the lists above mentioned except Lintfield.

WOODBIDGE.—Oct. 26, 1781, a grant of a township of unappropriated lands was made to Maj. Theodore Woodbridge and Company, (Governor and Council, II—126, 127). The granting fees were not paid however, and Ira Allen, as Surveyor General, was "empowered and directed by the Governor and Council in accordance with an Act of the Legislature" to dispose of the township granted to Maj. Woodbridge and use the proceeds in purchasing stores &c., (Governor and Council III—32, 33). Allen, having failed to dispose of the township, advanced funds on his own account and Gov. Chittenden at the request of Allen issued a charter to the latter in Oct. 1786. This act led to the defeat of Gov. Chittenden at the election in 1789, but after the whole matter had been thoroughly investigated by a committee of the legislature and a large balance found to be due Allen, as Surveyor General, from the state, Gov. Chittenden was recalled from private life and held the office of governor continuously thereafter until his death.

The following is from Governor and Council III—512, 513: "The charter of Woodbridge seems never to have been recorded by the Secretary of the Governor and Council, or the Secretary of State, but it was entered by Allen in his record as Surveyor General, and is now in the office of the Secretary of State, in a book erroneously marked as Vol. 2 of town charters. All the town charters in this book, Woodbridge excepted, are in the official record. . . . The charter of Woodbridge given to Allen was dated Oct. 26, 1781, the date of the grant to Maj. Woodbridge, and it was recorded by Allen on the 10th of Oct. 1786, in this book, which probably was originally intended for a state record, but was withheld on account of the questionable character of Woodbridge." See [Ms.] Vermont charters, II—26 to 28. The charter of Woodbridge described it as a tract bounded West on Alburgh and must have covered part at least of Highgate. When Allen's writ was served upon the state in 1792 the present town of Troy was levied upon as "Woodbridge, so called." (Governor and Council, IV—428). See also [Ms.] Vermont State Papers, 23-368.
